Among others at the Dwight Arvan Jones. As to receptions either at the clubhouse or in any of the Atlantic City hotels, nothing is on the program. There may be one informal greeting by the President to a select number of invited guests to the Seaview Golf Club house, but beyond that everything is speculative. It is indefinite, too, how long the President will remain at the country club. His program anticipates his remaining all of three days, but it is possible that if good weather prevails he may prolong his visit to tive days.
